

REMEMBERING SEPTEMBER 11

HON. JANE HARMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 11, 2003

Ms. HARMAN. Mr. Speaker, the passage of time will not fade from our memories the horror we witnessed 2 years ago today.

Nor will it diminish our feelings of sadness for those who lost their lives at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and in a remote field in western Pennsylvania.

For California's South Bay, where LAX—the destination of three of the four hijacked planes—is located, four of my constituents were killed.

We remember these individuals and comfort their families: Anna Alison of Torrance, Chandler "Chad" Keller of Manhattan Beach, Stanley Hall of Rancho Palos Verdes, and John Wenckus of Torrance.

We also remember several other individuals who worked in the 36th district but lived elsewhere. Their coworkers remember them fondly: Ruben Ornedo, who worked at Boeing, and Peter Gay, who worked for Raytheon Electronics and commuted to El Segundo weekly from the east coast.

Mr. Speaker, since September 11, we have taken concerted action to defeat terrorism. Brave members of our Armed Forces and intelligence communities are working to bring the perpetrators of those terrorist attacks to justice.

But we have much still to do.

And however difficult that task, we are inspired by the heroism of the first responders who gave their lives that day—by the thousands who are prepared to do the same should another attack occur—and by the memories of so many people who died.

As we mark this anniversary, to paraphrase Tennyson, America will "strive . . . seek . . . find . . . and not yield" in the face of this new threat.

Indeed, America will prevail.

HONORING MEMORY OF MOTHER TERESA

HON. WALTER B. JONES

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 11, 2003

Mr. JONES of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of one of the most compassionate people to have walked the earth: Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

I was not fortunate enough to personally know Mother Teresa, but I have been blessed to stand within twenty feet of this incredible woman. A few years ago, we presented Mother Teresa with the Congressional Gold Medal.

Arriving early, I was able to sit near enough that I could see every detail of Mother Teresa's face. Though she was old and weathered, one thought struck me as I stared at this living saint, "What a beautiful face."

Through her years in Calcutta she had seen illness and death, mourning and tragedy. She was rugged and aging, but, Mr. Speaker, she still possessed a perfectly beautiful face of love.

Were she still with us today, Mother Teresa would have celebrated her birthday on August 27. This year, Pope John Paul II will honor the life and service of Mother Teresa by beatifying her on October 19.

Mr. Speaker, to be honest, words cannot do this holy servant justice. I am convicted of my own inability to serve as selflessly as she did. This saint did the Lord's work on a daily basis, with no desire to be recognized, thanked or applauded.

I am certain that when she went Home to meet her Maker, she was greeted at the gates of heaven by the Father, with arms open wide, saying to her, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

Each of us should seek to serve with even one-third of the heart that Mother Teresa had. She is an example to us all of what a difference one life can make to so many millions.

Mother Teresa used to say, "There is joy in transcending self to serve others." Mr. Speaker, to all of us in Congress, I truly pray we can find such joy—such pure and selfless joy.

Happy Birthday, Mother Teresa. And may God bless the souls of those who still remain on this earth, seeking to carry on the tradition of servitude you left behind.

Throughout his life, Harry has shown a unique dedication to the City of New Haven and its residents. In a career that has spanned over three decades, Harry has been a member of both the New Haven Police Department and the Yale University Police. As a law enforcement officer, he has dedicated his career to serving and protecting our families and neighborhoods. The myriad of awards and citations which he has earned are a reflection of his commitment and outstanding service to our community.

During his twenty years with the New Haven Police Department, Harry served in many divisions. For twenty-five years he was a member of the Bomb Squad where he was cited for co-inventing several tools, which continue to be utilized across the country, designed to allow for a safer approach to explosive devices.
